

Privacy Statement

Berkshire Scouts takes the issue of privacy very seriously and is committed to protecting and respecting our users' privacy online. This Privacy Statement sets out our current data processing practices and should be read in conjunction with our terms and conditions. If you have any queries or concerns regarding these practices, you should contact us at support@berkshirescouts.org.uk

This Statement should be read in conjunction with the Data Protection Policy, available at www.berkshirescouts.org.uk.

1. The information we collect

The only circumstances in which we will provide any of your personal data to a third party for non commercial purposes are those contained in this Privacy Statement.

2. Registration information

Registration on berkshirescouts.org.uk is generally based on information located on The Scout Association's membership management system (currently Compass). Information captured includes your name, email address, telephone number, and roles. This process happens automatically for any member of Scouting within Berkshire who holds a full role, excluding Occasional Helpers. You may opt-out of this process by contacting the support team.

3. Sharing of data

We may share data supplied by you (or collected about you) with other parts of The Scout Association, or communication tools that we utilise to enhance your experience. This includes email newsletter services. For an up-to-date list of parties we may share data with, please contact the support team.

4. Legal jurisdiction

All personal information and details are primarily held on and processed by computers situated in the United Kingdom. Where the need arises to store information outside of the United Kingdom, precautions such as encryption, secure transfer, or anonymisation will be taken as necessary.

5. Email Communication

Berkshirescouts.org.uk will as part of its normal operation send out notifications via email. These emails may pertain to actions you have taken (such as applying for activity permits), or your role (for example the need to assess or approve an application).

6. Disclosure of data by order of a Court and Security

We reserve the right to communicate a Member's personal information as we hold to third parties who are empowered by regulation, statute or order of a court.

We have security measures in place to protect our customer database. Access to this database is restricted internally. However, it remains each Member's responsibility:

- to keep their password secret
- to protect against unauthorised access to your personal details
- to log off from berkshirescouts.org.uk when not using it; and
- to ensure against use by anyone else of berkshirescouts.org.uk through the machine that Member uses while they are "logged on" to berkshirescouts.org.uk
- to search and obtain only the data specifically required and allowed for relating to their role.
