Occasional news and snippets for participants, leaders, and supporters of Malawi 2024

June 2024

Final training weekend

Following months of planning and preparation, the final training weekend for Malawi 2024 took place at Dorney Wood Scout Campsite. The theme was to replicate the conditions in Malawi best we could, and the sunny weather played its part!

Personal hygiene and camp skills/duties were top of the list as well as sharing final information. The programme also included patrol challenges, handling tools, learning crafts to share with Malawi Scouts, and completing work on the campsite.

More photographs will be uploaded to the Malawi 2024 website during the next few days.

Washing hands on a regular basis, eg: before food and after toilet visits, will be a critical hygiene routine in Malawi!

Orbis (Code of Conduct)

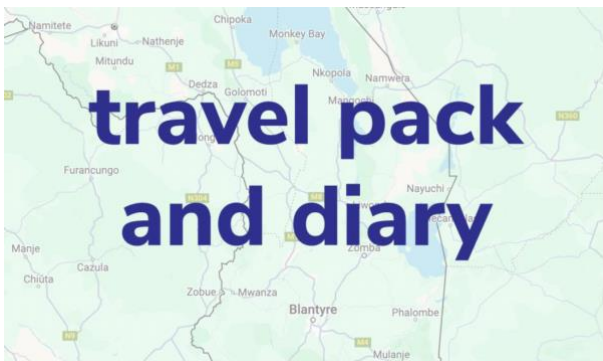

Orbis (our in-country logistics provider) have a Code of Conduct which they expect all their clients to read and understand. Click here to download and read.

Scouts (Code of Conduct)

Malawi 2024 participants have also agreed and produced their own Code of Conduct. This document is available via the website. A printed copy will also be provided at the Base Camp in Malawi.

Travel Pack

The second version of the Travel Pack is available from the website. Two printed copies will be issued at the Final Briefing (one for participants and one for family).

Dragon Boat Regatta

Similar to last year, Malawi 2024 participants will be managing the catering for the Dragon Boat Regatta on Sunday 7 July.

Last year this raised over £2,500 for central projects. A similar amount this year will get us very close to our £29,000 target.

With record numbers at the Regatta this year we will need all the help we can get. Please inform Phill Wood if you are able to help.

Bulletin 16 (July)

The content for Bulletin 16 will be the 'Final Joining' instructions and issued mid July.
